

The Cosmic Christ Part 2: Building Bridges

By Gita Saraydarian

In esoteric literature the word “Christ” has five different definitions. One of the definitions refers to Christ as the Cosmic Christ.

What is the Cosmic Christ?

“It is the Soul of the Universe, the link or the relation between matter and spirit, and the redemptive energy, which leads the life, sleeping in matter, toward glorious heights of endless unfoldment.... It is the Son, the second person of the Trinity.”
(Christ the Avatar of Sacrificial Love).

It is the Love energy in nature, that attractive, magnetic power that links us to each other.

To me, the Cosmic Christ is the universal Messenger of God, who guides, inspires, and overshadows all great Teachers of world religions. It is through Him that all religions manifest.

He has given the Divine Teachings to humanity through His intermediaries such as Krishna, Buddha, Jesus, Moses, Zoroaster, Lao Tse, Mohammed, to name just a few.

If we are able to embrace the idea of a Cosmic Christ, Who does the will of the Father in Heaven, and elevates all mankind with God’s Teachings, then we can start building the bridges that will eventually help us unite all humanity under one God, not under one religion, but under one God with many manifestations. Conceptually, the idea of the Cosmic Christ helps us build the bridges of tolerance and acceptance.
